

My Friends,

Thanks again. For the second time I'm indebted to you for a reminder that I still know some people back in the city where I used to live.

Received a letter the other day from another Bryant alumnae, and he wrote that he had heard from you to. He, too, thought it pretty nice.

So, hoping that we may all be soon celebrating our return to a normal life
I'll remain,

As ever,
Sgt. Thomas W. Sanford
